

I'm greatly opposed to Broadband Over Power Lines. This type of communication will have a significant negative effect on the Amateur Radio HF transmissions. Amateur Radio Emergency Service is the Nations only communication link during serious disasters. Natural radio frequency disturbances are tough enough obstacles. We do not have to create more radio frequency disturbance.